OLD BUSINESS:

Foundation Report: Checks have been given to all elementary schools in the county for library books. Leetown, Mecklenburg, and Jefferson/Rippon need to select a director to serve a three-year term.

Ditty Bags: The ditty bags for the Men's Rescue Mission are to be delivered on Tuesday.

Achievement Party: November 17th with registration at 11:OO a.m.

Festival of Ideas: July 26th in Moorefield. There will be three classes given.

Energy Express: Take Found Objects to Ranson Elementary School for Energy Express.

Outspoken 4-H Bike Ride: The Outspoken for 4-H Bike Ride was a great success. Jared Matlick was the only one to ride the whole way to Jackson's Mill on his bike.

50 Year Members: Check to see if your club has any fifty-year members.

NEW BUSINESS:

Fall Conference: will be held at Jackson's Mill on October 9, 10, 11 - consider going. We would like to have a good group from Jefferson County. Registration forms will be providing in early August.

Council Meeting: The August Council meeting will be August 13 due the fair being the third week of August.

Elect Officers: Clubs need to elect officers for the 2008-2009 membership year before October. This information needs to be taken to the Fall Conference.

NVON Conference: Clarissa Stemple and Nancy Burke will be attending the NVON Conference in Lexington, KY in July.

Relay for Life: Our Council is invited to the opening for Relay for Life, June 22nd at 7:00 p.m. at the Jefferson High School Ninth Grade Complex.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Pat Bethany on the death of her mother, Regine Mancinelli. Cards may be sent to Pat at 217 N Maple Ave. Martinsburg, WV 25401. Donations may be made to the Adult Day Care Center, Berkeley County Senior Center in her memory.

They voted to give $200 to Adult Day Care.
